The BIG news is that even though we were handed lemons as we worked on the Phun Phest this year, we pretended they were limes and made margaritas anyway. We raised $9000 for Hospice! We hope to get a picture of the check presentation up on the web site as soon as one of the pholks who had a camera sends it in! We still hope to raise $2500 more this year to finish up on our commitment to Hospice for the room we agreed to sponsor.

New Business

- Ticket money for DTE on September 12 had to be turned in at this meeting. The money has to be turned in to PHiP before the end of the week. Gail is looking into getting a bus to take everyone down if there is enough interest.
- Indy and Chicago tickets distributed to those who paid for theirs.
- The Detroit PHC camping trip is this weekend.

- We're back on top again among Parrot Head Clubs collecting for Alzheimer's Association, but we need people to start getting donations now. Contact Kim Dyer at kimbis@aol.com or see the link on our web page (<http://www.mmphc.com>) if you want to sign up and/or pledge. We don't have to walk. We can set up a table and recruit new members. Bobbi has challenged everyone in the club to at least match her $20 donation. We pledged to raise $1000, so our logo is going to be on the t-shirts and on the pledge forms.
- 8 of 82 club members are signed up for Meeting of the Minds in Key West in November. We're putting together a basket of things to donate for the raffles at this event.
- Tami is tracking down the remaining t-shirts, which seem to have gone a wandering.
- We're still trying to figure out what to do with the great quilt we have. The raffle idea didn't seem to go over real well for various reasons, so we're working on coming up with something else. The only thing that DID go over well is donating the money we raise with it to a breast cancer charity since the fabric was donated by the Wilsons, and Greg is a survivor.
- Anyone interested in going to the Lugnuts game on August 24? We're too late to go as an official group, but we can still go and have a good time. It's Thirsty Thursday, and Buffett night.

- Orders were taken at the meeting for t-shirts to be donated to men and women in the military in Iraq at an event that is being planned over there.
- July 27 – Taste of the Chamber – Lansing Mall parking lot. 5:30 to 8:30. $30 in advance. Sample food from various area restaurants and meet local business people. Open to the public.
- August 12 – Party at Lake Geneva. More details when I get them.
- August 11-20 – Cheeseburger in Caseville. The entire town gets into the spirit. <http://www.cheeseburgerincaseville.com>
- Picnic at Hawk Island County Park on August 27 at 3:00pm. We'll provide meat to grill, but bring along something to pass and sodas. This is a great park with lots of things to do.

Next Meeting:

August 27, 2006 – It was decided to have the picnic kind of replace the meeting this month, although we ARE working on a happy hour as well. Alcohol is not allowed in the county parks, so we wanted to have a gathering with available “adult beverages” too.

Other upcoming events:

July 21-23 - Detroit Parrot Head Club is arranging a regional camping trip. They've reserved 45 sites at Timber Trails near Decatur, Michigan. Watch for details.
