Rockwell, Jeff Saxton, Bill Shammick, Norm Spalding, Fred Stock, Jan Swiss, Jana Weeks, Bobbi Woods, Randy Worden, Paula Wurm,

Decorations, Food, Friends, Games and Prizes. Our “After the holidays, boy do I need a drink” party seemed to be enjoyed by all in attendance. The meeting was kept brief so that we could concentrate on having the party. We raised $110 for the Capital Area Humane Society while we were at it ... and we should have the total donated by the next meeting.

Next Meeting:

- February 15, 2007 – 6:30 at Trippers in Frandor

Old Business

- We’ve agreed to send a t-shirt to the Parrotheads in Amish Paradise. They are making a quilt with t-shirts from clubs all around the country.
- The venue for the Phun Phest will be decided soon. It’s down to the final 3. A decision should be made by the next meeting in February ... we hope. June 22 will be upon us soon enough.

New Business

- We will be putting out a quarterly print newsletter to try to keep people informed. Sometimes email just falls through the cracks. Watch for the next issue in April.
- The Rum Chums bowling team was #1 in the league after the second week of play. We don’t expect that to last long, but everyone is invited to come to Marvel Lanes on Saginaw (old M-78) to cheer us on every Monday night at 7:00pm.
- February 11 – We’ve been challenged by the Detroit Parrot Head Club to participate in the POLAR PLUNGE and raise money for Michigan Special Olympics. Sign up to join us by going to <http://tinyurl.com/3decoe> You can also pledge your support by going to <http://www.active.com/donate/polarplungemichigan/KDyer64>. Select the team member you wish to support from the pulldown menu on that page. Come out to Hawk Island Park on Sunday, Feb 11 at noon ... and watch the (fool)hardy folks leap into the lake. (Let’s hope for SLIGHTLY warmer weather so we can actually do it.)
- Tami has reserved the prime Saturday evening spot for us to man the phones at the WKAR-TV auction. We’re there from 4:00pm to 8:00pm on April 28. Put on your finest “parrotphenalia” and join us as we answer the phones. Contact her at tamikuhn@sbcglobal.net for details.

- Corona Night with the Lansing Lugnuts. Yes, summer is coming. August 16 is Thirsty Thursday and the Buffett night at the park. This year the Lugnuts have approached us so we can work together to make it great for everyone. Please email Kim at secretary@mmpfc.com if you are interested so we can get a vague idea of how many people will come. It’s always great fun, and we may even do something special this year.

Other upcoming events:

- February 9-11, 2007 – Caribbean Blue and Friends weekend at the RS Eastin Hotel in Roseville, MI.
- February 11, 2007 – POLAR PLUNGE – Help raise money for Michigan Special Olympics. Come to Hawk Island Park at noon to register ...and watch as the (fool)hardy souls jump in the lake for a good cause.
- March 3, 2007 – Chicago Parrot Head Club Coconut Bowl. The Chicago club has made arrangements for special room rates, and a good time should be had by all. <http://chicagoparrotheads.com/> Contact Gail LaLonde at RumChum65@yahoo.com for more information. Several of us are considering going down by train for this event.
- April 20-22, 2007 – Great Lakes Regional Parrothead Event . Details to follow.
- April 28, 2007 – WKAR Radio Auction. – 4:00pm to 8:00pm.
- June 2007 – Phlocking of the Phaithful at Put in Bay.
- November 1-4 – Meeting of the Minds – Barefooting in Key West.
